WASHINGTON, D. C., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1909 .- TWELVE PAGES.

Beloved Woman Killed in a Collision.

AUTO HIT BY CAR

Places.

DIES IN A HOSPITAL

Well Known in Capital for Many Good Deeds.

Had Been Active in Charitable Work in Washington for Years-Mem-Government Hospital for the Insane - Was the Mother of Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell-Gave Hubbard Memorial Hall in Memory of Her Husband-Story of the Fatal Accident and Trip to and Death in Garfield Hospital.

Mrs. Gertrude M. Hubbard, widow of Gardiner Greene Hubbard, one of the most charming and beloved women of the National Capital was killed last

She died at Garfield Hospital about 9 o'clock from injuries sustained three hours before in an automobile accident near Cleveland Park.

About the bed when Mrs. Hubbard breathed her last were a score of her nearest relatives, numbering among them some of the most prominent citizens of Washington.

aid not regain con-

The accident occurred shortly after dusk in Connecticut avenue extended between Newark and Macomb streets. Mrs. Hubbard occupied a seat in the land. tonneau of her seven-passenger White trip. Mrs. Hubbard used the big seven steamer with her sister, Mrs. Charles Mercer Marsh, of New York City. Alexander Nelson, chauffeur, who had been in Mrs. Hubbard's employ for years, was at the steering wheel.

About fifty yards south of Cleveland Park station the chauffeur found it necessary to guide the machine onto the car track, as each side of the road was he heard the rumbles of a south-bound into the house. For more than an hour the car. A collision seemed inevitable. Oaks. there was a crash, and, caught before the heavy work car. Chevy Chase Club. was shoved 150 feet down the tracks. It | A few hundred yards north of Cleve was then thrown against a pile of sand land park station the work car passed never be known. Her sister does not remember, and the chauffeur declares it is mpossible to learn. When Nelson looked found Mrs. Hubbard hanging over the door of the tonneau. Mrs. Marsh was lying in the bottom of the car crying hysterically. Mrs. Hubbard was silent. Excited men were about the disabled mate form over the door of the car was lifted and borne away. Mrs. Marsh was faint, but apparently unhurt. Several men started to carry Mrs. Hubbard toward Cleveland Park station when an automo-

Journey to the Hospital,

Maj. Henry G. Cole, U. S. A., and Maj. Harold Reisinger, of the Marine Corps, stepped from the automobile and approached the men carrying Mrs. Hubaccident, and the party hurried to the She was removed to Garfield Hospital, but machine. Mrs. Cole alighted, and the relatives declare she was not injured. army officer resumed his seat at the wheel of the small runabout. Patrick Caughlin, a watchman, employed be tha District, on duty near the scene c accident, took a seat beside Maj. and held Mrs. Hubbard in his arms. son stood on the running board, sur ing the injured woman, and the mastarted.

A speedy trip was made to Ga: Hospital, where the machine was me J. Madigan of the hospital staff Hubbard was carried into the emerge physicians that she was near death ber life, and she was carried into

The forehead was found to have I crushed, and the face was so badly Hubbard had been thrown from the r ne, striking the roadway on her fa This theory was found erroneous. The

Lillian Russell Matinee To-day, 2:

Flooring, Good Alabama, $2 100 i

WEATHER FORECAST.

For the District of Columbia, Maryland, and Virginia-Rain and warmer to-day; to-morrow, partly cloudy; moderate south-was a fracture at the base of the skull, which could not be accounted for, in addition to numerous other injuries on the arms, legs, and body.

Mrs. Hubbard was placed on the operating table, and the work of relieving the pressure of the skull against the brain was begun. Mrs. Hubbard grew weaker as the operation progressed, and toward the end her breath was scarcely perceptible. The operation was completed, and Mrs. Hubbard was placed on a stretcher. She was removed to a private room and placed in bed,

Noticed She Was Dying.

Then it was seen the venerable wo man was dving Relatives had been notified, and were in the reception hall awaiting news from the operating room Skull Is Fractured in Two when a physician appeared and asked them to step upstairs. They were ushered into the room where Mrs. Hubbard lay on the bed in time to see her alive. News of the accident was city-wide before Mrs. Hubbard died and shortly

> Arrangements for the funeral will be made to-day, although it is known services will be held at Mrs. Hubbard's beautiful home at Twin Oaks, in Woodlev lane.

after 9 o'clock her death was generally

Acting Coroner Glazebrook viewed the body at the hospital, and allowed it to be removed to Twin Oaks. Dr. Glazebrook has ordered an inquest this morning at 10 o'clock.

So far as the police have been able to scertain there were no eyewitnesses of the accident, except Mrs. Marsh and Nelson, the chauffeur, who remember so little of the tragic circumstances that ber of the Board of Visitors of the their testimony will be of small importance in fixing the blame for the death of this estimable woman, Inspector Robert H. Boardman, assistant superintendent of police, directed the investigation. The police were informed of the accident shortly after 9 'clock, and Detectives Pratt and How-ett were sent to the scene, Capt. Henry hneider, of the Seventh precinct, left the station about the same time with a detail of policemen. It was thought Pr. Glazebrook would order the arrest of the motorman, conductor, and chauffeur. but the acting coroner decided such action would be unnecessary, if the Capital Traction Company officials vouched for the appearance of the employes at the

Cleveland Wiley, motorman of car 13, which struck the automobile, and Conductor Claude Havener were located

It is understood Wiley made the assertion there were no rear lights on the automobile, and he did not see the ma-chine until too late to avoid a collision. It is probable this will be an important point in the inquest.

Nelson Grief-stricken, of Mrs. Hubbard. It is understood Nelhe was unable to speak coherently.

Mrs. Hubbard was an enthusiastic au omobilist. About a month ago she re urned to Washington, after a 'two months' trip through England and Scot-land. Nelson was her chauffeur on the She also owned a large Peerless car which she used frequently in Washington.

About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon she left her home with her sister for a would benefit her. Nelson was instructed and when he reached Grant road was told to drive to the home of Mrs. David barred to traffic because of improvements Hubbard, living in North Chevy Chase. being made in the roadbed. He was Mrs. Hubbard was greeted at the door driving south at moderate speed when by Mrs. Fairchild, and the three went work train behind him. Nelson turned to they chatted and laughed, Mrs. Hub-look behind. He was blinded by the bard appearing in unusually good spirits. glare of a powerful light on the front of aged women decided to start for Twin They entered the automobile, and Nelson guided the car to the left and Mrs. Hubbard bent over and kissed her was about to leave the car track when granddaughter. Nelson started the mahine, going through Grant road to Con- shot and killed a black bear. The bear The trolley car struck the automobile at an angle, throwing it against a pole between the tracks. The machine bounded Maj. Reisinger, who were returning from there the boy, running ahead of his

the runabout driven by Maj. Cole.

Described by Maj. Cole. "The car was going at terrific speed." said Maj. Cole, "and I thought the motorman had lost control of it. He did not stop at Cleveland Park station, but whizzed by at a high rate of speed. I was traveling at a speed of about twenty miles an hour, and the trolley car went automobile in a few seconds. The inanipast me like I was standing still. I had seen the White Steamer ahead, but did not realize the danger of its occupants until I heard a crash. I did not see the accident, and do not know how it hap-

When Maj. Cole reached the scene he saw the disabled automobile surrounded by persons, who, he thought, were passengers, but it was learned the men were as a fugitive from justice and Sheriff workmen. Maj. Cole left the scene in a ew minutes with Mrs. Hubbard, and Mrs. | notified. Marsh was carried away in an automo bard. Maj. Cole was informed of the bile, which appeared a few minutes later

LAST RITES BENEATH CAR.

Administers Extreme Unction Dying Child on Track.

ork, Oct. 20 .- Ten-year-old Annie Walles bwski, of Jersey City, was run cars to cost $4,000,000. a trolley car this afternoon and > ather Bernard Keany saw the and ran out. He was joined A newspaper reporter lifted the d Father Keany, kneeling unforward end of the car, adextreme unction to the little Ascursion, Sunday, Oct. 24th. imore & Ohio Rattroad.

Ind trip to Harpers Ferry and g; $1.35 to Berkeley Springs, o Cumberland. Special train on Station at 8:15 a.m., repedy

FAINT HEART NE'ER WON FAIR LADY.

SUES CHIEF WILKIE.

Man Imprisoned During Taft's Stay at San Antonio Asks Damages.

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 20.-Because h visit here, John Murray, of Chicago, today filed suit for $25,000 damages against John E. Wilkie, chief of the United States Secret Service: Joe Priest, local United States marshal. Murray alleges he was jailed on a false charge. He is secretary of the Political by the police in the car barn at Chevy Chase Lake, but acting under instructions Refuge and Defense League, and was arfrom superiors neither men would make rested on a charge of violating the neutrality laws. He was released later for

TARIFF WAR LIKELY.

France May Apply Maximum Rates on Our Products.

A serious tariff war between France nome at Twin Oaks shortly before pildent, according to information received at ing and the bronsho-buck

The present agreement with France will velt's amusement. son was devoted to the woman, whose terminate on November 1, and the genlife was in his care for years, and her eral belief here is that France will ap- Rincon, a distance of eight miles, in an riage," paying therefor the sum of $4,600. date's digestive organs was not immesudden death was so great a shock to ply her maximim rates upon American automobile. The only exciting event of base of the skull. In addition to these him, he was unnerved. Persons who products. This will have the effect of the day occurred a few minutes before talked with him after the accident say seriously damaging American export his arrival at the ranch. A rattle-

ITALIAN HELD FOR MURDER.

Youth Arrested in New York for

New York, Oct. 20.-Lister Fellici, an Italian laborer, nineteen years old, was arrested to-night and locked up as a fugitive from justice from Albany, where he is wanted for the murder of John La Chapelle, eighty years old, on the farm of the latter's son Joseph, near Albany, The old man's body was found in a carriage house, where he was accustomed to sleep. The head had been crushed enough to split me.'

BOY KILLS BEAR.

Ten-year-old Lad Shoots Animal with Bird Shot.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 20.-Dorman Long, a ten-year-old boy, of Sweet Vallev, while hunting with his father to-day ather, followed and shot the bear. The bear fell and, believing it was dead

the boy rushed upon it, only to find it springing up and turning upon him. on he gave it the second barrel

CAROLINA FUGITIVE CAUGHT. New York Police Nabbed Negro

Wanted for Murder,

New York, Oct. 20 .- Chalmers Barber, a young negro man for whom an alarm was sent out last August from Landsford, near Chester, S. C., for the shooting and killing of a man named Collins udge on August 25, was arrested this bean employed in a Broadway hat store He was locked up at police headquarters D. E. Colvin, of Chester County, was

Railroad Orders Large.

Pittsburg, Oct. 20 .- It is announced today that orders for approximately $8,650,- the office of United States District Attor-990 worth of rails and equipment have received by industrial establishments Representative J. L. within the last few days. The Baltinore and Ohio, the Erie and the Norfolk of Labor Charles S. Neill, who is acting and Western railroads, have ordered 310 as a member of the commission locomotives to cost $4,650,000. The New York Central system ordered 4,000 steel Triplets Born in Norwich, N. Y. Norwich, N. Y., Oct. 20.-Triplets were born to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Adams, of this village to-day. The girl weighed 'ather Magrath, president of the three pounds while the two boys tipped is of three sons born at one time.

> Typhoon Sweeps Luzon. Manila, Oct. 20 .- A typoon in central Luzon last Monday wrecked all communication with the interior and caused many deaths. Great damage is reported from

TAFT SEES ROUND-UP

was imprisoned during President Taft's President in Saddle Watches Cowboys at Work.

detective, and Fred Lancaster, deputy EXHIBITION A TAME AFFAIR

Killing of Big Rattlesnake Only Exeiting Event of Day-Spends Morning on Golf Links with Brother. Will Speak at Taft Town This when free will marry some wealthy Afternoon-Saw Cattle Branded.

Gregory, Tex., Oct. 20 .- President Taff saw a cattle round-up on his brother's ranch this afternoon. It was a tame ig and steer-riding stunts that were pulled off in the West for President Roosesnake, five feet long and with eighteen rattles, was discovered near the house #### inspection upon his arrival. Old Horse Shied.

the ranch, but even Sam shied at th Presidential load. It was several minutes before the cowboys could get San quieted and the President safely in the addle. That saddle had been made especially for the President's use while he is on the ranch the President was astride him, and by the time the round-up was over the old and he was wet with sweat. A ride of in this country of Andreas Dippel. Both about two miles from the ranch house sang at the Metropolitan Opera House over the plains brought the President to first during the season of 1890-91. the round-up.

erd. The President circled the herd and musical pedagogue. He was sixty-four other members of his party to watch the cowboys. They roped three or four steers an exhibition with the lasso as could b seen in any ordinary wild West circus.

Saw Cattle Branded.

The President saw the ranchmen cut the ears and brand several of the calves and watched several of the steers swim roken their affectionate embrace. lent spent on the golf links with brother. To-morrow he will visit Taft, mittee. a town of 500 people, on his brother's anch, and will see a steam plow in operation

Taft went Republican unanimously in the last election, and the President will deliver a little speech.

MAY PROBE PEONAGE CASE.

Secret Hearings in Chicago. ubcommittee of the Congressional Imminey Sims. The subcommittee consists of ma, and United States Commissi this vicinity, is evident from the fact that several witnesses have been subponeaed from Argo, Ill., to testify in regard to conditions in the big plant of the Corn prison. Products Company

Big Swindle Suspected,

Berlin, Oct. 20 .- A dispatch from Windwere actually smuggled into Southwest caped. Africa. A big swindling scheme is sus-

Gallipolis, Ohio, Oct. 20.-The steamer Sally Mermet, of Cincinnati, struck a The crew escaped.

-Nent-Nice, $2.50 Apiece. Bilads, No. (1), $1.15 a Pair. A Whole Window Glazed for $1.25. Strips, Dressed Any Size, 1c a foot, Molding, All Kinds, 1c a ft, Everything and Anything in Wood. Strips, Dressed Any Size, 1c a foot, Strips, Dressed Any Size, Strips, Dressed Any Size, Strips, Dressed Any Size, Strips, Dressed Any Size, Strips, Dresse

MRS. GUGGENHEIM IN DOUBT. Millionaire's Wife Does Not Know

Whether She Is Divorced. Chicago, Oct. 20 .- Who is the rich New York man who is backing Mrs. Grace B. Guggenheim in her suit to determine whether she is the wife or the divorced wife of William Guggenheim? Mrs. Guggenheim, it is said, is in serithe wife of Guggenheim, and for that reason hesitates to enter into another marriage. If it is established that she is the wife of Guggenheim, it is said that she will make proper application for divorce, and

MORGAN BUYS OLD NOVELS.

Purchases Original Manuscripts of

George Meredith's Works. London, Oct. 20 .- J. P. Morgan has of the Crossways," "Lord Ormont and The President rode from this place to His Aminta," and "The Amazing Marold and faithful servant, who served him for breath. for thirty years, but who received no legacy in the author's will, which stated and killed. The snake was hanging up that adequate provision had been made on the ranch fence for the President's for him. The owner of the manuscripts, however, did not know until quite re-

HEINRICH GUDEHUS DEAD.

First of the Parsifals and Musical

New York, Oct. 20 .- Heinrich Gudehus first of the Parsifals and a member of the Metropolitan Opera House Company "Goodness," said Mr. Taft, "it's wide during the days of the German regime, is dead at his home in Dresden. He Sam's spirits began to subside after came to the Metropolitan Opera House to replace Max Alvari, and joined the company simultaneously with the arrival Gudehus began life as a school teacher. He had recently gained renown as a years of age at the time of his death, having been born on March 30, 1845, at

HERESY CHARGE PREFERRED.

Synod of New York City Faces Trial

in Presbyterian Council, Schenectady, N. Y., Oct. 20 .- At the anthrough the dip, a long concrete trench filled with a tick-killing solution. The of New York, which began at Johns-President examined a handful of the town to-day, the charges of violating aforesaid ticks after the solution had The early part of the day the Presi- preferred against the Synod of New York when Judge Gaynor was really a nice old can distinguish only light from darkhis City, were referred to the judiciary com-

The committee at once began consideration of the charges behind closed doors. It is alleged the New York synod has permitted the ordination of Rev. Alexander Black, despite the fact that the minister, who is a graduate of Union Theological Seminary, refused to subscribe to certain orthodox cardinal scrip-Congressional Commission Begins tural doctrines, such as the immaculate parts of the speeches he had delivered at stopped. Her father then left the two conception, the story of the Garden of the other halls. Chicago, Oct. 20 .- Secret sessions of a Eden, and the whale swallowing Jonah.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 20 .- Donald C. in the Coast Artillery, and passed bad checks from coast to coast, pleaded That the investigation will include an guilty to the charge of false pretense and inquiry into the question of peonage in asked the leniency of the court. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and serve two years at hard labor in Leavenworth and two pounds , respectively. The father stated that part of the diamonds alleged last night while her husband was absent. in shooting. to have been found at Cocepcion Bay, She was attacked by a negro, who es-

Saved in Auto from Lynching. Pensacola, Fla., Oct. 20,-The quickness of deputies in seizing an automobile to make their escape was all that to-day saved from lynching Robert Stewart, a established firm of W. G. Irwin Company, was ticked away by the clock in the rock near Sciotoville last night and sunk. negro, who had cut the throat of a white oy at Century, near here.

SHERMAN AT LAKE MOHONK.

Vice President Speaks of the Indian

Question at Conference. Lake Mohonk, N. Y., Oct. 20 .- Vice President Sherman was the leading speaker at the Mohonk Indian conference to-day. He said in future the government must deal with the Indians as an individual, both as to land and money, rather than with him as a member of a

The president of the conference, Hon. Elmere Ellsworth Brown, commissioner of education, spoke of the work being one by the government of the Alaskan Indians. R. G. Valentine, the new In-dian commissioner, explained the work of the Indian Bureau, its difficulties in dealing with Indians and their white

GAYNOR BITTERLY SCORES MR. HEARST

Pays Compliments to Editor in Incisive Phrases.

Former Justice Augustus Van Wyck Presides - Democratic Candidates Cite Utterances of Publisher-Representative Bennet Optimistic for the Success of Bannard.

New York, Oct. 20.-Justice Gaynor neld the center of the stage in the Brooklyn Academy of Music to-night for more than two hours before an audience o about 3,000 persons, presided over by former Justice Augustus Van Wyck. During about one-third of that time Justice Gaynor presented his complinents to William R. Hearst in phrases that were as varied as they were in-

Cited Many Instances,

In the beginning he invited his listeners to go and take a look at William R. Hearst and to "look at that face." He also referred to Mr. Hearst's "rag-bag" newspapers, and he cited many instance of Mr. Hearst's "bellowing" up and down the island of Manhattan about issues the vacuity of which the Tammany can ous doubt as to whether she is or is not didate invited his hearers to examine. "Not content with his own news papers," said the candidate, in reference > bimself as though he were a patent mediine or a nostrum. "What would you think of me if I were aire a man at the rate of $50,000 a year to Mr. Hearst, "he has hired columns in other newspapers, and he advertises on his stomach have had in the weakness of the candi-

Representative W. S. Bennet, who is managing Mr. Bannard's campaign, to-

Mr. Hearst, in Mr. Bennet's opinion, will poll a large vote, and the plurality day put his name to a prediction that the

for the fusion ticket will be 75,000 or When Charles F. Murphy was told ing, and who continued playing woof these predictions, he said: "They were the events which followed occurred.

will win.' HEARST SCORES GAYNOR

AT FOUR BIG MEETINGS New York, Oct. 20 .- Mr. Hearst ran

Harvard tandem.

sorry for a certain fussy old gentle- ment. Mr. Barnes answered without man who had become ill natured, vitu- hesitation. perative, and a little vulgar. He said deed corrupted good manners. There was open, and his eyes were staring, the church doctrine in permitting heresy, a time, said Mr. Hearst, mournfully,

"Mr." Gaynor.

Hearst spoke at Jefferson Hall last where perhaps 1,200 shouters were very Frech, in passing her hand across his busy indeed. He repeated the essential heart, noticed that the beating

CZAR TRAVELS INCOGNITO. Afternoon.

Racconigi next Saturday afternoon. He was sent to Deputy Coroner L. W. Glazewill return to Russia by way of Germany, going through Modane on Monday. He is traveling incognito at present, but will set about chafing Mr. Barnes' hands and appear as the Czar when he reaches feet. The body had been removed to a ordenecchia, the first Italian railway lounge. station after leaving France,

The raffway from Bordenecchia to Raconigi, where he will meet King Victor Hawailan Sugar Deal Closed. the history of the Hawaiian Islands, has just been consummated here. The longterests to C. Brewer & Co.

sugar refiners, have sold all their in-

TWO CENTS.

Washington Postmaster Dies Suddenly.

SEATED IN CHAIR

Death Is Caused by Heart Disease.

TALKS TO BROOKLYN CROWDS IN SPLENDID HEALTH

About to Commence Card Game When Stricken.

Three Minutes After Entering Home of His Father-in-law, Jacob Frech, Early Last Evening Benjamin F. Barnes Was Stricken-Frantic Efforts Made to Revive Him-Rose from Clerkship in Post-office Department to Head of Washington Office-Active in Politics-Secretary to Theodore Roosevelt After the Death of President McKinley.

Benjamin Franklin Barnes, postmaster of Washington, died suddenly, of heart trouble, last night at 7:40 o'clock, at the ome of Jacob Frech, his father-in-law, 514 L street northeast. He was forty years old.

back, he had come briskly through the to hire a paper in this great city and then i front door; announced that it was a glorious night and he was feeling fine, and to slobber over me, just as though I sat down to a game of pinochle. Advere a patent medicine or a painkiller of some kind-or a foolkiller?" Works.

Works.

Justice Gaynor here repeated an inelegant statement, which he had made begant statement, which he had made before, while speaking on the subject of Mr. Hearst and his campaign. He said was held.

a telephone call from Mr. Barnes, who of his father-in-law two or three times diately apparent, but he continued to a week. Following an old custom belace into Mr. Hearst without pausing tween them, the son-in-law asked if Mr.

a little while. When his footsteps were heard on the front porch the supper table had been cleared. He came in cheerily, kissed Mrs. Frech, shock hands with Mr. Frech, weather to a daughter, Miss Lillian Frech, who was sitting at the plane playing, and who continued playing while

"How are you feeling?" he asked her. "Fine. How are you?" she queried back over her shoulder. "All right." he answered, emphasizing the words. While Miss Frech went on with the piece she was playing. Mr. Barnes went through the East Side to-night, through into the other room. Again, according to lanes of red lights with crowds whoop- an old custom at the house, preparations ing at his coat tails. Mr. Ivins followed were commenced for a game of pinochie Mrs. Frech sat at one side of the table There were four meetings. It took a and Mr. Barnes, keeping up a running strong arm and a hard face to rip a fire of cheery comments on things in way into any of the halls after 8 o'clock, general, took his place at the opposite and there were times when the policemen side. Mr. Frech turned to the mantle gave a pretty fair imitation of the old piece to get tobacco. He asked Mr. Barnes for the proper word to express a Mr. Hearst 'it first at the Yorkville feature of etiquette between an inferior Casino. He told them that he merely felt and a superior in a government depart-

When the father-in-law turned around he had been disposed at first to feel with the tobacco, Mr. Barnes' arms had bitter toward the judge, but that he re- fallen limply to his sides. His head alized that evil communications had in- was thrown back, his mouth was wide

Mrs. Frech is so nearly blind that she fellow, from whom much was expected. ness. When she heard her husband say: But "Mr." Gaynor? He couldn't stand for "Don't you want me to open a window for you, Frank?" she became frightened, At the Teutonia Assembly rooms, Wil- and felt her way around the table to liam Hepburn Russell presided and introduced the candidate. Mr. Hearst The two, with the help of Miss Freel The two, with the help of Miss Frech, walked into Judge Gaynor from the who had heard the exclamations, commenced chafing Mr. Barnes' hands, Frech poured water over his head. Miss went to the drug store to call a doctor.

He gave three numbers before he found a physician at home. Dr. Seneca B. Bair diately to the Frech home. A moment's examination was enough. He announced Rome, Oct. 20 .- The Czar will arrive at that Mr. Barnes had died instantly. Word brook and undertaker, and then, with Dr. Bain helping them, although he said plainly it was useless, the family again

Mrs. Emily E. Barnes, the widow, who had been notified at the home of her Greenville, Tex., Oct. 20.—There has will be guarded by 50,000 thousand troops. sister, Mrs. Walter Donaldson, 26 R been great excitement in Greenville to- The Czar will not go to Messina but he street northeast, came into the room, apthe scale at but two and three quarters hoek, Cape Colony, says it is officially day over an attack upon Mrs. Will Lloyd the time he is at Racconigi will be spent band's trouble was anything more than band's trouble was anything more than a fainting spell. She proceeded with the rest of them to revive him.

> Dr. Bain tried artificial respiration, and at the sound of the air being mechanically forced into and out of the lungs the widow's hopes rose high, only to fall steadily as minute after minute

Continued on Page 3, Column 5,